

Brazil The Adventure

17th - 29th Nov 2019

from £ 1749

We've spent the last 14yrs exploring the north-eastern coast of Brazil and have linked together our favourite spots with an adventurous trip up the coast, where your most frequent mode of transport will be your kite!

Fly in to Fortaleza Airport, then it's under 2hrs transfer to our starting point of Flexheras. The aim is to downwind from one place to the next with the trucks following us along the beach. That's a lot of kiting mileage!

Flexheras

We stay right on the edge of town in front of the beach, with a beautiful garden and pool area, great for relaxing after a long day of kiting.

Prea

Kiting paradise with your bed a stone's throw from the water's edge, miles of beach and a range of conditions varying with the tide.

Jericoacoara

Jeri is a small town on a sand dune at the end of our epic down winder. It was purpose built by hippy windsurfers years ago and there's still a great chilled out vibe to it. We stay on the edge of town to avoid the crowds and have the quickest route out to get first pick of the best beach spots each day.

Icaraizinho

Once again we are staying right on the beach at our favourite pousada. Loads of different beach spot options to base ourselves at during the day and plenty of friendly local restaurants to choose from in the evenings.
