Easyriders new wave adventure trip!

Our Peru trip is fast becoming one of our favourite trips having spent the last 2 years exploring the Northshore, discovering loads of great beach spots, sampling the pisco fruity's, and kiting some of the best waves of our lives and we can't wait to go back!

The Downlow

Fly from London to Piura, with a connection in Lima. We then stay in 2 different spots. First stop is Mancora; Peru's Northshore 2.5hrs transfer from the airport. This area of the coast is known to be windier and has a number of different beach breaks to explore by 4x4. Just short of a week here we then travel down the coast to the infamous Pacasamayo, home of the longest left hander in the world.
